Itinerary

Glacier Bay Lodge is nestled among Sitka Spruce on the shores of Bartlett Cove at the border to Glacier Bay National Park. The main lobby is spacious and inviting with giant wood beams and cathedral ceilings. Relax in front of the fireplace in the view lounge area, visit the National Park Service's excellent interpretive displays or enjoy walks on nearby trails throughout the rain forest. The restaurant - with outside decks - serves fresh, creatively prepared meals with an emphasis on local seafood. Other amenities include a coffee shop and complimentary wireless internet.

Day 1 Juneau or Skagway to Gustavus (Air) Flight from originating city over Inside Passage to Gustavus. Transfer to Glacier Bay Lodge. Afternoon / evening free for optional activities such as free national park talks, sea kayaking, biking or salt water fishing. The Fairweather Mountain range stretches 4,670m into the heavens. As a backdrop for Bartlett Cove, Mount Fairweather is taller than any peak in the other 49 states.

Day 2 Glacier Bay Cruise - Evening flight Gustavus to Juneau or Skagway (Cruise / Air) Glacier Bay Cruise to the face of the calving Margerie and Grand Pacific Glaciers. Rising 76m above the waterline and stretching another 30m below the water. Several whale species feed extensively in the bay, including the endangered Humpback whales and the threatened Steller Sea Lion. Thousands of Harbour seals breed and nurture their pups. Minke and Killer whales as well as Harbour and Dall's porpoises feed in the Park's productive, near-shore waters. Sea otters are colonizing the bay. After the cruise transfer back to the airport for your return flight.
