INTRODUCTION

At a formidable 20,320 feet tall, Mount Denali is the Centrepiece of Denali National Park, and you'll get the best view on a Denali flightseeing tour with Rusts! Soar to new heights on the intimate, 3-hour Discover Denali Flightseeing Tour with an experienced Alaska bush pilot who loves to share Alaskas most inaccessible and spectacularly-wild settings.

This is one of our most popular tours.

Flight Pattern: Depart Lake Hood, Anchorage's lively seaplane airport, traverse the flatlands across Cook Inlet (possible Beluga whales), spotting for moose and, depending on the time of year and weather, and follow the ragged spine of the Alaska Range with its massive walls of rock and ice to the crowning jewel, Mount Denali. The photo stop landing location varies seasonally and is dependent on weather.
